

Meridian Construction Launches Website with Enhanced Features

Fort Myers, Fla. (December 9, 2008) - Meridian Construction Consultants, who recently expanded their construction and development presence, has just introduced their new website, MeridianProfessionals.com. The new website, which is up and running, has enhanced features and “Green Building” in mind, but that is not all, “The real change is in our approach to what developers and builders are looking for in this economy!” reports CEO, Mr. Lynn Murtagh.
